TRAJECT:1

The programme runs from September 2018 through June 2019 and consists of two parts: 10 monthly mentor meetings and 10 monthly seminars.

You are guided one by one by your mentor. Together you form the programme, in which you will delve deeper into your working method, your work and its relevance. All participants will meet during the 10 monthly seminars. Per month a participant presents a completed work. This work is the subject of a guided conversation with a guest from the professional field (artist, curator, etc.). Also you will have a one-off conversation with an art historian to get a deeper insight into the essence of your work and will be formed into a contemplative text. For the culmination of the programme, participants will get a collective exhibition.

MATCHMAKING

The match between you and mentor will be made based on working method, intention with the programme and the wishes from both you and the mentor. The list with mentors exists of artists, gallery owners, curators, etc. You will find the current list of mentors on the website.

SELECTION

The selection will be made on the basis of the application form and the portfolio, we will exchange thoughts with an independent adviser about the matches.

CONDITIONS
